HOBBIES

Astronomy, Astrophotography

Combining my beginner-level interests in astrophysics and photography I discovered astronomy and astrophotography. Along with a small group of friends, hobbyists and professionals in the field, we explore the night sky and capture it to the best of our ability.

Cooking

A hobby that evolved out of my curiosity when watching my parents cook, became a tool in exploring new cultures, coming closer with people from different backgrounds and tasting exciting flavours. A mindful experience that allows me to creatively relax.

Coffee Brewing

My love of coffee got me into brewing and exploring different origins of coffee beans and the importance of sustainability in their production.
